BUICKS BARRED

From Competing in National Stock Car Race

A rather peculiar condition of affairs in connection with the National Automobile Club race to be held here in September was brought to light yesterday when it was learned that the Buick cars are barred from competing in the National stock car race. The reason for this is the fact that the Buick cars are not in compliance with the minimum displacement of the Buick cars is 218 cubic inches, while the minimum displacement of the Buick cars is 218 cubic inches.

It was the intention of the management to enter in the 218-cu. in. race at Brighton beach, but it was found that the Buick cars were not in compliance with the minimum displacement of the Buick cars is 218 cubic inches, while the minimum displacement of the Buick cars is 218 cubic inches.

The rules governing the big race as laid down by the National Automobile Club are as follows: "Open to any stock chassis of 218 to and including 600 cubic inches piston displacement; minimum weight of car 2400 lbs. net, exclusive of fuel tank."

The piston displacement of the Buick cars is 218 cubic inches, which is less than the minimum stipulated in the rules.

On the face of it it would appear that the Buick would enter such a race with a great advantage to themselves and that it would be to the advantage of the cars with larger piston displacement to allow them to race.

Last year the rules governing the race were stretched to a point in order to allow the Buick to enter, the piston displacement of the Buick cars being larger than the maximum allowed in the rules.

The only objection that the Buick cars could have relative to a race with a smaller piston displacement would be where a car would be so slow that it would not be worth the effort of competing.

No Objection Here
In conversation with a representative of the Buick company, it was stated that the Buick cars are not in compliance with the minimum displacement of the Buick cars is 218 cubic inches, while the minimum displacement of the Buick cars is 218 cubic inches.

Mr. Pickens Talks
William H. Pickens, manager of racing advertising and publicity department of the Buick company, in conversation with a representative of The Sun this afternoon had the following to say: "We did not think for a moment that there was anything in the rules governing the big race that would bar our cars from competing and it was only the other day that we happened to note that the rules allowed cars with a minimum of 451 cubic inches to compete. As our cars have a displacement of but 218 inches we immediately started an investigation and found that the Buick cars are not in compliance with the minimum displacement of the Buick cars is 218 cubic inches, while the minimum displacement of the Buick cars is 218 cubic inches."

It is our intention to enter all our cars in the races, two in each of the three classes to be held on Monday and three in the big race. Strongly protesting and demanding that the Buick cars be allowed to enter, we would not be coming here for the race.

Ryall in Town
J. B. Ryall, the clever and daring auto driver, who has done notable stunts in the Madison cars, was also in town with Messrs. Bristol and Pickens. Ryall has recently been engaged by the Buick people to drive one of their cars in the race.

Amendment to Rules Desirable
An amendment to the rules governing the race which would allow the Buick cars to enter would certainly be very desirable to the public, as the Buick cars are generally well known and are of a class which is popular with the public.

Varnum Avenue Residents
A misconception relative to what the Lowell Automobile club intends to do in the way of closing the roads for the races has gained circulation in the city and the residents of Varnum avenue as well as people who have occasion to use that thoroughfare who do not understand the real condition of affairs are highly incensed.

The entire course, Varnum avenue included, will be closed either at midnight Sunday night before Labor day or early Labor day morning and will remain closed to a certain extent until the carnival is over. Passes will be issued to residents of that thoroughfare as well as the side streets leading from it, and such residents can pass through the street at their own convenience only at such times as the races are in progress.

The only time that the street will be closed to them will be between 10 a.m. on Labor day and the time the race is over, between 10 a.m. on Wednesday and the time the race is over and during the motorcycle races on Friday. This is done to insure safety and to avoid any trouble.

At all times during the week the recorders will be closed to the public for the expense of running the races is enormous and there must be some way to pay the expenses. It is not possible to pay the expenses and then have the people of Lowell pay the expenses.

The Lowell Automobile club is not a charitable organization and it is not possible to have the people of Lowell pay the expenses of the club to pay the expenses of the club and to have the people of Lowell pay the expenses of the club.

ALMOST THE SAME THING.

"I UNDERSTAND you were carried away by her singing."
"Well, not quite that. I was driven away by it, though."

CUPID'S REHEARSAL.

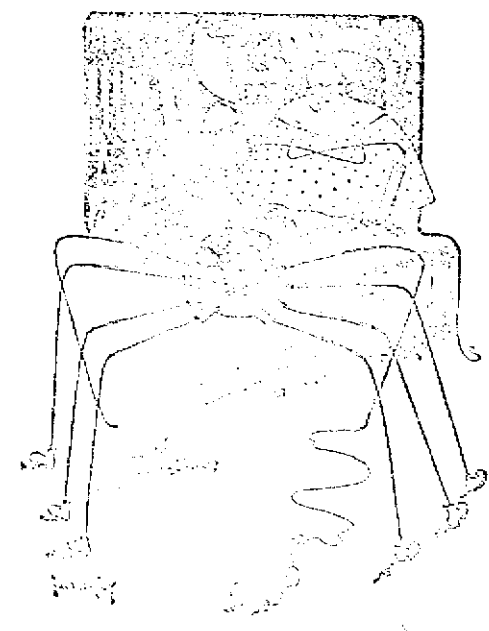

"HE—You didn't seem startled when I proposed to you."
"No! I have so often dreamed that you proposed to me."

ANOTHER RAID ON THE HENROOST.

Mr. Henchery Coshin (reflects): "Well, what are you after now?"
The Visitor: "I am collecting material for 'Fox's Book of Martyrs' and would like to include you and your family in the body of the work."

Classifying Her.
"I SAW them at the cat show the other night."

THERE'S A REASON.

CONG. J. A. KELIHER MORE SHOCKS FELT

Was Arrested by Order of Great Suffering Among the People of Acapulco

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 3.—Representative John A. Keliher of Boston was arrested by order of Speaker Cannon at the Union station by the sergeant-at-arms of the house last night. He was about to board a train for Boston.

The officer told the Boston congressman that he could not leave town until he had a commission from Speaker Cannon.

A number of other members of the house were asked at the station by house officers.

Keliher wanted to leave town Saturday night after he had voted against the tariff bill. He remained overnight yesterday, however, to vote on the urgent deficiency appropriation bill.

No vote was taken and Keliher went to his apartments, packed his clothes, and went to the station, planning to be in Boston this morning to keep an important business engagement.

He was about to board the train when the sergeant-at-arms placed him under arrest and ordered him to remain in Washington.

Keliher protested that he had important business to transact at home and that he had arranged to return to Washington on receipt of a wire that his vote was needed.

The officer would take no explanation, so Keliher was compelled to go back to his apartments.

All of the arrests were made on the order of Speaker Cannon, who wants a quorum here to pass the deficiency bill and the resolution eliminating the joker in the leather schedule.

CARDINAL GIBBONS ON THE WAY TO SALT LAKE CITY

PITTSBURG, Aug. 3.—Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore, head of the Catholic church in the United States, accompanied by Bishop J. J. O'Connell of San Francisco, passed through here late last night on his way to Salt Lake, Utah, where he will dedicate a church.

The cardinal had retired, but Bishop O'Connell, who has traveled extensively in Spain, was interested in the late news from that country and when asked for a statement said:

"The stars have been pointing to apostasy for some time. There can be but one opinion regarding the unspeakable atrocities committed. The symptoms are the same as those preceding the French revolution."

MORE SHOCKS FELT EXPECT TROUBLE

If the Strikers Are Evicted

PITTSBURG, Aug. 3.—Fears of serious trouble are entertained if the expected eviction of 48 strikers and their families is attempted by the Pressed Steel Car Co., at their houses near the company's plant at Schoenerville today.

A double force of deputies with the Pennsylvania state constabulary is on guard at the works. At a mass meeting held on Indian mound last night, strike leaders counseled the men to maintain peace, but it is predicted that the sight of their wives and children being summarily forced into the streets will rouse the idle workmen to a frenzy. The strikers claim that the hope of a quick settlement of the difficulties existing between them and the company is bright and they will make further efforts today to bring their alleged grievances before representatives of the company.

MEXICO CITY, August 3.—A dispatch received from Acapulco states that the earthquake shocks still continue. All buildings which remain standing are untenable, a heavy rain is falling and many are suffering from want of shelter. The tents and temporary shacks in which the people are living are pronounced miserably inadequate. A number of citizens are acting as special policemen. There has been some looting. Food, clothing and medicine are urgently needed, but thus far no relief steps have been taken by the federal government.

It is stated at the war department that no request for national aid has been received. It is said relief measures are held up through red tape.

Peter Riley, Aged 93 Years, Passed Away

Deceased Had Been a Resident of Lowell Since 1845 and a Hibernian Since 1834—He Was a Well Known Member of St.
Patrick's Parish

Mr. Peter Riley, the oldest Hibernian in Lowell, and it is believed, in all America, and a popular resident of Lowell since 1855, passed away at his home, 61 Butterfield street, yesterday afternoon, at the age of 93 years, one month. The old gentleman had been failing steadily for the past six months and for 10 weeks had been confined to his bed. During his long confinement to the bed he never complained and in a kindly manner and good nature never failed him. He was conscious of his last breath and expressed with the last rites of the Catholic church of which he had ever been a constant and devout member. His end was peaceful and happy.

But even after he ceased to attend the meetings he was ever with his brother members in spirit and at the last big parade of the organization he rode in a carriage. He was one of the earliest and most enthusiastic friends of St. John's hospital and was one of the original members of the old St. Vincent de Paul society, which in the early days of the hospital devoted its efforts to the raising of funds for the support of the worthy institution. He became a voter in 1853 and ever afterwards carefully preserved his naturalized vote in casting the oldest naturalized vote in the city. He was a dyed-in-the-wool democrat and was ever missed a caucus or an election.

Mr. Riley belonged to the good old Irish stock that figured prominently in the early development of New England. His family was noted for its longevity for whom he was one of seven children, six of whom lived to be over 80 years of age. He was born in county Leitrim, Ireland, June 29, 1835, and came to America and Lowell in 1855, residing for the remainder of his life in the city and St. Patrick's parish, or as it was called in the old days, St. Jary's parish. He was married in the old days to Mary's mother. He was a stone mason by trade and he worked on some of Lowell's best known buildings, including the old St. Patrick's church, the Immaculate Conception church, St. John's hospital, nearly all of the mills and on the new canals. Mr. Riley joined the order, heart and soul. He joined the order in Lowell in Ireland, in 1834, and he was one of the organizers of Division 1, A. O. H., the oldest division in this city. Up to the time that the infirmities of age made it impossible for him to climb the seven flights of stairs to Hilburian hall he never held an office, although he never held an office in the order to be one of the rank and file.

WERE SECRETLY WED

Groom is House Physician in Hospital in this City

SACO, Me., Aug. 3.—The greatest surprise in the matrimonial line in the city occurred yesterday noon with the announcement of the marriage of Dr. Fitzroy F. Pillsbury, of Portland, Charles W. Pillsbury of this city and house physician at the Lowell, Mass., hospital, and Miss Ruby Davis, the daughter of Henry D. Davis, a prominent man.

The wedding took place in Boston nearly two years ago, just before the Dartmouth-Harvard game, which was won by Dartmouth, 22 to 0. They went to the game and conceived the idea of being married at that time. The fact has since proved a serious mistake. The bride has been living at her parents here and the groom has been completing his medical education. He was attending Dartmouth at the time of his marriage. The bride is a graduate of Thornton academy.

The groom is a graduate of Thornton, subsequently attending Dartmouth college and receiving his degree from Dartmouth Medical school in 1909. He belongs to a number of Greek letter societies at Dartmouth and is a member of the Massachusetts Medical society. He has had special service at the New York City hospital and the Boston City hospital.

Dr. Pillsbury is house physician at the Lowell hospital. Inquiry at that place and here has failed to obtain the information that Dr. Pillsbury was out of town and would not be back for a week.

THE TARIFF REPORT

The Senate Will Vote On It Thursday Afternoon

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The tariff conference report will be voted upon in the senate at 2 p. m. Thursday. An effort to stop this effort was reached today at 12:30 o'clock at the conclusion of a speech by Senator Clapp.

The unanimous agreement was reached in motion of Senator Bailey.

An effort was made by informal conference to agree upon 3 p. m. tomorrow as the time the vote should be taken, but some senators feared that all of the speeches to be made could not be completed by that hour, and, therefore, it was regarded as a better plan to have the vote on Thursday.

A variety of opinions was given out concerning the effect of the paragraph under consideration. Mr. Clapp believed that it limited the power of the president, while Mr. Crawford, viewing it as an attempt to accomplish that which did not think it would succeed, would give no authority to the president to obtain the cost of protection at home and abroad or so do anything except to determine what action should be taken respecting the operation of the maximum and minimum clause.

Newsman having said that he was greatly disappointed that the measures given by the chairman of the committee, Senator Stone with a half-suppressed smile suggested that such assurances had been given, that the senate should receive the translation of the German government report on the cost of production in Germany.

"If," he added, "we may judge from the press reports, the cotton baling provisions of the bill at the instance of two of our manufacturers of this country who held a monopoly of the business, objection was made by Senator Capper, of Kansas, and Mr. Capper's amendment and prohibition clause, dating the six months' notice of an abrogation of commercial treaties conferring with foreign countries, was provided in the tariff bill from April 1, 1902, and that it was so that such notices had been given for foreign governments three months ago, in the case of France, Mr. Capper suggested that it was as to notice was required that country should be notified in advance against by actually having only one month's warning of the changes to be made in the tariff schedules, in order that that country might be called upon to correct this inequity in dealing with the various nations, but the Rhode Island senator indicated no sympathy with that view of the matter."

The tariff commission clause of the bill, as changed by the conferees, became a subject of much explanation when Mr. Newlands questioned the chairman of the finance committee concerning the paragraph.

Asked whether that provision would empower the president to obtain the cost of production of manufactured articles at home and abroad, Mr. Aldrich replied that in his judgment the provision would not only do that, but was actually broader in its authority than the senate paragraph which it replaced.

"It allows the president," he said, "to employ whomsoever he pleases without limit, and to assign them such duties as he sees fit within the limitation of the maximum and minimum provisions."

"Will the inquiries of the commission cover the cost of production at home and abroad?" inquired Mr. Newlands.

Mr. Aldrich said he believed congress would not fail to fully supply the president with appropriation to carry on the authority to ascertain all facts deemed necessary by him concerning the operation of the maximum and minimum rates of the provision.

ON NASHUA ROAD

Resident Counted 125
Autos in Tyngsboro

"Perhaps some people think that the old Nashua road is a lonesome sort of a place" remarked "Brother" George Hayes of Tyngsboro today while he and "Brother" Walter Hayes Farwell were waiting for the Tyngsboro car. "Yesterday by actual count," he added, "I noted 125 automobiles passing our house."

Walter Hayes Farwell and George Hayes are brothers, for Walter was adopted in childhood days and took the name of the well known Tyngsboro resident, who adopted him. Both brothers were born in Tyngsboro, and within a year had no more each other, since the dark days of '61. After the war Walter returned to Tyngsboro and has lived there ever since but George roamed the world and finally landed at Toms river—his brother's home town—Tyngsboro, where then he had lived together, the last day of his tag, on the old Nashua road where the late listing is always out and over the door of which is this inscription "2 Vets Home," done in Artist highway's most recent letter. "There were 125 autos by the house yesterday between 7 and 9 in the morning and 9 at night when I fell asleep, and I'll tell you how I counted them. I had a whole lot of matches in the bottom pocket of my vest and every time an auto passed I took a match from the lower pocket and put it in the upper pocket. When I counted up this morning, I found 125 matches which meant that 125 autos passed the house. That's going some, for autos, isn't it?"

The main Nashua road which is a state highway is at present being macadamized and that fact accounts for the number of autos that take the old road.

MATRIMONIAL

A very pretty wedding was held this afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Charles, 205 Phoenix street, when their son, James Hiram Charles, and Miss Helen Grace Scott were united in wedlock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. K. Fisher at the home in Wilder street shortly before 4 o'clock today. Miss Grace Hummel was the bridesmaid and the bridegroom was attended by his best man, Mr. H. Charles. Miss Mildred Hummel was flower girl and carried a basket of beautiful sweet peas with other flowers appropriate to the occasion. The bride looked charming in a pretty gown of white tulle richly embroidered. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, while the bridegroom carried a bunch of white carnations. The happy young couple were congratulated by many friends in returning to their home where a wedding dinner was served by the same company. They were the recipients of many costly and beautiful presents, among them being a gold watch, a gift of Mr. and Mrs. Charles, Mr. and Mrs. Charles will call on friends in a few days, where they will spend the bride's mother at Edinburg, make a brief tour of the Highlands, and visit some of the historic points of interest in that picturesque State. They will leave for this country on Sept. 17th and will be at home in the Highlands in the middle of October at 205 Phoenix street. They once more wish to thank the best wishes of all friends.

BREACH OF TRUST

ANDERSON, S. C., Aug. 3. — Calhoun Harris, secretary and assistant cashier of the Orr cotton mills here, was arrested today, charged with breach of trust.

Expert accountants who are going over his books, announced that $20,000 was missing. Harris, who is formerly prominent, says the apparent shortage with him is due to a clerical error.

PUTNAM AFFAIR

To Be Discussed by the Board
of Aldermen Tonight

The Putnam matter will go before the board of aldermen this evening. The Putnam matter involves the nervous attempt to remove Newell E. Putnam from the office of superintendent of streets.

The aldermen will hold an adjourned meeting and the common council will meet in special session. It was stated today that the mayor would preside and that the board of aldermen and will endeavor to force the Putnam matter through.

The common council at the last meeting voted to appoint a joint committee to investigate the mayor's charges against the superintendent of streets. The committee was not appointed but was expected this evening.

The mayor is not to have a place on the committee, at least that was not the original intent, and that part of the reason why, it is stated, that the mayor will preside at the meeting this evening.

It is expected that the aldermen will appoint a committee to work in conjunction with the committee from the lower board. Supt. Putnam courts a full investigation, but insists now the investigation is going to be made is a question.

The mayor has charged Supt. Putnam with leaving or allowing to be left unguarded blocks in Middlesex street. He had the blocks measured by Police Commissioner MacFarlane, his former secretary, Police officers Palmer, Petrie, Moore and a few others and, in their reports, they declare they found blocks that were not as long as the specifications called for. But the means that the paving job is receiving the finishing touches in Middlesex street and in order to make any kind of a thorough examination the blocks will have to be dug up. Mr. Putnam says that that can be done and he wants it done. Supt. Putnam is responsible only for the blocks, not for any that have been removed.

MANSLAUGHTER

Charged Against Man Who Engaged in Boxing Bout

PROVINCETOWN, Aug. 3.—Attorney General Dana Malone of Massachusetts sent State Officer Ernest Bradford here today with a warrant for David W. Williams, colored, of Marietta, Ga., and a mess band on the battleship Vermont, who is charged in the warrant with manslaughter in causing the death of Harrison B. Foster in a boxing bout last Friday.

Officer Bradford started out to the Vermont at 12:40 o'clock and stated if the captain of the vessel refused to give up the man, he would not have made to Rear Admiral Schroeder.

State Officer Bradford came from Boston on the noon train and at once engaged the services of a boatman to take him to the Vermont. He declared that the state authorities would make every effort to investigate the death of Foster and that if the officers of the fleet refused to give Williams up, an appeal would be made to the department at Washington.

Foster refused to show his warrant before going out to the Vermont and declared that it was from the attorney general.

The last witness was Thomas Child, an inmate in the house who saw Mrs. Richmond lying on the kitchen floor with the revolver in her hand as he took her the body away and found it partially loaded.

After Attorney Clegg had declared in a brief argument that there was not sufficient evidence to hold the woman tonight, he had called two witnesses in from the stage. Amy de- cided that there was enough evidence to warrant an investigation by the grand jury and held the woman without bail.

MURDER CHARGED

Mrs. Elizabeth Richmond Was Arraigned in Court Today

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., August 3.—District Attorney Higgins came up today from Provincetown, where he is spending his vacation, to take personal charge of the government's case in the hearing of Mrs. Elizabeth Richmond, charged with the murder of Stewart McTavish on July 27. The hearing was before Judge Charles Atkins in the district court. McTavish was found dead in a room at the Hotel Florence, Cambridge, last night. Cambridge, a near-drunkness, conducted by Mrs. Richmond, with a bullet wound in the head and numerous other wounds apparently caused by an axe. He was armed with a revolver and the state inspector, George W. Gardner, had come to Provincetown to attend his sister's wedding, but did not appear at the ceremony.

Mrs. Richmond was represented by Attorney Edwin W. Gould of Boston and by Assistant State's Counsel, the 13 witnesses on the stand told of his experience of the night McTavish and she were found lying dead in the left side of the head and wounds on the right side, evidently caused by an axe. Death was said to be due to a fractured skull, having been inflicted by John Drohan, a cook employed at the hotel. He said he and Timothy Clifford, a boarder, missing McTavish, went to his room and found the body lying on the bed. He had not seen McTavish since the previous morning. On the previous afternoon Mrs. Richmond had locked herself in the sitting room and witness said when he called to her and asked for some money to buy some food for the boarders she snore at him.

District Attorney Higgins suddenly asked the witness:

"You didn't kill McTavish, did you?"

"No, sir," was the reply.

Timothy Clifford told of going with Drohan to McTavish's room and finding his body. He said that Mrs. Richmond at this time was in the sitting room, unconscious in a drunken state. He suspected that McTavish was responsible for run being brought to the hotel. He said when they saw the body, Drohan exclaimed, "My God, I've killed him." They then notified the police.

District Attorney Higgins asked for

The finding of the body was described in turn.

"You didn't kill McTavish, did you?"

"What do you take me for, crazy?"

Responded the witness, adding "No."

RAID BY POLICE

Ten Men Taken From Middlesex Street House

A cheap lodging house in Middlesex street, which has been the rendezvous for strangers as well as Lowell people, was raided by a detail of police last night, and ten men, who are acquainted with work but not on speaking terms with the police, were arrested and sent to the police station where they were booked for drunkenness.

The names, ages and addresses of the arrested men are as follows: Patrick J. Kane, 28, Lowell; John J. Smith, 30, Lowell; John Anderson, 35, Cambridge; John Kane, 28, Framingham; Ernest Smith, 31, Salem, N. H.; Joseph E. Jones, 44, Westford; Thomas Keating, 35, Westford; James Curtin, 46, Boston; Daniel J. McInnes, 44, Boston; Joseph A. Langlois, 34, Lowell.

The complaints against this house have been so numerous of late that the police decided it was time to pay a visit to the house and make a general cleaning up. The neighbors in the vicinity, especially those who reside in the Eliot block, have been disturbed by the noise of the occupants of the lodging house in question.

The officers engaged in the raid were Patrolmen Sheridan, Ingalls, Corporation Officer Briggs and the special officer connected with the Eliot block. They arrived at the house shortly after midnight, when the general disturbance was in full swing.

In court this morning the ten were charged with drunkenness. Jones is a pure man and will be returned to the state farm; Kane was sentenced to 30 days in jail and entered an appeal; Smith was given a suspended sentence to the state farm; Keating will spend the next month in jail; Smith, Clancy, Anderson, McInnes, Langlois and Curtin were fined $2 each.

STRIKE IS ENDED

INVERNESS, C. B., Aug. 3.—Representatives of the striking mine workers here stated today that the strike, which was begun on July 9th, is practically ended. They state that it would have been officially called off before this time, but for the effect which such action might have on the situation at Glace Bay, on the other side of Cape Breton, where a much larger body of men is on strike for the same principle, namely, the recognition of the United Mine Workers of America. It is understood that a memorial will be forwarded to the Dominion government asking for the transportation to some other point of 100 Belgian miners here who are out of work and are considered likely to become a charge on the town.

MANY CHARGES Against "Vivisection Farm"

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—A mystery that has long puzzled the citizens of the village of Clyde, N. J., is likely to be cleared up soon, when the state board of health has a hearing on a petition which was made to it yesterday, asking that "Vivisection Farm," a strange institution near Clyde, be suppressed.

The farm is known as the property of John D. Rockefeller, and is said to be part of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research of this city. The mystery is whether or not vivisection is practiced on the farm.

The complaint made by the Clyde people yesterday was to the effect that between 75 and 100 dogs, of all breeds and varieties, are kept on the Rockefeller farm, and make night hideously their howls and yelps. The villagers asked that measures be taken to relieve them of this nuisance.

Besides dogs, there are horses, pigs, rabbits and other animals on the farm. It is said that these animals are not kept in cages, but are allowed to roam at large. They are all raised in large numbers. The Clyde people declare, and are shipped to New York alive and never come back.

For months the nightly racket has been going on. All sorts of canine sounds, from the whining bay of hounds to the sharp bark of terriers, have assaulted the ears of early retiring Clydeites. Several attempts have been made to visit the managers of the farm, Peter Corbitt and one or two others, but no one has been able to get beyond the gates.

The residents of the neighborhood do not charge that live animals are operated upon at the farm, but many of them half believe the story. The such is the case. They are sure, they declare, that the dogs and other animals are raised for no other purpose than to die in the cause of science.

Mrs. Spencer H. Weart, wife of a prominent Jersey City lawyer, is leading the fight against "Vivisection Farm." She and the other complainants have engaged Attorney George Berline of New Brunswick, near which Clyde is located, and they say they will force the issue to keep more quiet or will have it removed.

REV. M. EARLS, S. J. TO LEAVE BOSTON COLLEGE FOR MARYLAND

Rev. Michael Earls, S. J., of Boston college is soon to leave Boston to pursue a course in theology at the Jesuit novitiate in Woodstock, Md., and his many friends in Lowell and Boston regret his departure. Rev. Earls, for he is yet a Jesuit scholastic, has been stationed at Boston college for the past five years as a teacher, and he has endeavored himself to both students and friends of the institution. His day-to-day work at the college, he inaugurated the idea of publishing the college paper, The Stylus, a monthly publication replete with news items of the college, as well as special articles. He also organized the Boston college orchestra and Glee club, and it is an exaggeration to say that no college possesses finer musicians than have been trained under Prof. Earls' direction.

But it is outside the college room that Prof. Earls has earned a reputation. He is a lecturer on the "Bardic Music and Poetry of Ireland," and many times have audiences in Boston, Lowell and elsewhere been charmed with his lectures. His last lecture in Lowell, he gave to the United Irish league, and the entertainment afforded by the professor and his band of boy singers is well remembered. Among the members of the Mathew Temperance Institute, before which organization he has appeared, he will be remembered and will regret his departure to new fields.

MINISTER HUNGRY HIS SALARY BUT $14 IN TWELVE WEEKS

CINCINNATI, Aug. 3.—Rev. J. Spencer Smith, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, of Westchester, Ohio, in a sermon denouncing the "pillars of his church" last night, told from the pulpit a story of privation and want that amazed his hearers.

"Because of the way you have treated me, for days at a time I have had to live on butterless bread and water. I was forced to go eight weeks without receiving a penny from you. For three days, when my wife lay in bed with her newly-born babe, I went without a bite so that she might get nourishment to keep her child alive with bread and tea, all we had left."

"Because of your treatment my wife's mind temporarily gave way, and she would now be an inmate of an asylum had I not made a study of medicine."

"In twelve weeks I received but $14 from you on my salary, long overdue. You neglected me. You were all aware of my condition. You seemed to think that because I am a preacher I could live on nothing."

There are some of the charges buried in the little village church by Smith at his congregation. A profound sensation exists and the outcome is expected to be a church trial to lay the blame on these responsible.

WOMAN SOUGHT In Connection With Missing of a Precious Jewel

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—A chance meeting of a man and woman on Sixth avenue has led to one of the most complicated jewel mysteries that ever confronted the police. The mystery has involved a Fifth avenue jeweler, a Maiden Lane jeweler, auctioneer in litigation over a $2,500 oriental pearl, and the case has been handed over to the civil courts for solution after one arrest, three hearings before magistrates and a two-week search of the Tenderloin for the beautiful woman said to be concerned.

Jewelry firms of prominence in Fifth avenue and in the Maiden Lane wholesale section are vitally interested. One Fifth avenue auction house was brought into the matter indirectly. The ring, its ownership unexplained, is in a safe at police headquarters. It will stay there until the civil courts work out a solution, all criminal yarns having broken off short.

The ring originally belonged to Alfred H. Smith & Co., of No. 452 Fifth avenue. It was sent to James P. Silo, at No. 546 Fifth avenue, to be sold at auction with other jewels. It was not sold, however, and the firm concerned supposed it had been returned. It is now claimed by Meyer Bros., manufacturing jewelers of No. 58 Nassau street.

Although the ring has been in open court three times, the jewellers kept all reports of it from the news and until yesterday, when a reporter traced it to police headquarters.

It was toward the end of the auction season that the Smith corporation sent to Auctioneer Silo a consignment of jewels for auction. Such a move is usual in stock clearing during the summer dullness. In the consignment, according to the American's information, was the pearl ring, a gem weighing 19 1/2 grains, the shade being the light pink so desired by pearl fanciers. It was set on either side with three small, perfect diamonds.

It is said that Smith & Co. put a price of $2,500 on the ring, a reasonable minimum of $1,500. No reasonable bids were received. The firm says it returned the consignment, including the ring, and received a receipt from Alfred H. Smith & Co.

There was consternation in both firms when it was discovered, a week or so later, that the ring which Smith & Co. held was a cheap imitation pearl, worth probably $150. The standing of the auction house put it beyond suspicion, but the Smith firm wanted the real ring or its value.

One report is that that suit was threatened against the Silo firm. Another is that the Smith concern was about to collect the value of the pearl from a jewelry insurance company.

At this point, Thomas Warrell, of No. 65 Nassau street, a broker in stones, entered the Smith store and offered a pearl ring. Mr. Smith immediately claimed it as the one for which substitution had been made. Warrell declared he had offered it to several retail dealers, and readily told where he had obtained it. He took the ring to the office of his counsel, E. Karlson, of No. 35 Nassau street, where it was put in a safe.

Warrell obtained it on consignment from Meyer Bros., of 53 Nassau street. They had purchased it after a week's dickering from Henry Soffer, a jeweler at Forty-second street and Sixth avenue.

Soffer said he bought it from a woman brought to him by Joseph Lowry, to whom he had sold a commission. Lowry was arrested June 16 and spent two days in the Tombs. He then was released in custody of a probation officer who knew him.

He told of meeting a woman on Sixth avenue, who wanted to sell the pearl. He took her to Jeweler Soffer, to whom he had sold a commission. Soffer said he had purchased it after a week's dickering from Henry Soffer, a jeweler at Forty-second street and Sixth avenue.

LOST HIS LIFE WHILE TRYING TO SAVE ANOTHER FROM DROWNING

DEER ISLE, Maine, Aug. 3.—While making an unsuccessful attempt to save a fellow countryman from drowning, Guiseppe Ernesto lost his own life last night at Stonington. Tenari Grue was bathing at Croch Island and swam out to a lobster buoy, a distance of about 100 feet. When he started to return he was seized with cramps and sank. Guiseppe was seen to swim to his rescue by a third Italian on shore who ran for some rope. When the latter returned both Tenari and Guiseppe had disappeared. Their bodies were recovered. Both came directly here from Italy within a year or so. They were of middle age.

To Claim the Mysterious Bag of Diamonds

But the Mystery of James R. Marsh's Picture and Signature Being in the Bag Has Not Been Explained

The person whom I. A. Ganger, vice-president of the New York & Bridgeport Transportation company, has been looking for some time, to his office at 110 East river, New York, yesterday and claimed the traveling bag which was found on the City of Worcester and has been giving him so much trouble since July 1. The bag was of alligator, finished with the initials "G. L. W." and contained $250 in cash, two diamond rings, a case of the New Testament, a flask of whiskey, a box of cigars, several photographs of an actress, two gold watches, a pack of playing cards and various articles of lingerie.

The owner is a woman, who said she was Miss Grace Lawrence Wheeler of Philadelphia, and beyond this she refused to give any information about herself. Miss Wheeler gave an accurate description of the contents of the bag and satisfied Mr. Ganger that it belonged to her.

"Who found the bag?" asked Miss Wheeler. She was told that a colored porter, Joseph Lantry, was the man she made Lantry a present of $100. He has charged his job.

In the bag was a daguerreotype bearing the signature of James R. Marsh.

James R. Marsh, a cigar dealer of Prescott street, this city, when seen regarding the daguerreotype, which was found in the bag containing money and diamonds left on the steamship City of Worcester, said that he was 19

Man Carried Bible and Shears

WINCHENDON, Aug. 3.—Several complaints were yesterday received by the local police department from residents near State line, N. H., stating that a man, apparently not in his right mind, was causing them a great deal of anxiety by his threats and queer behavior.

The stranger came to State line on an afternoon train Sunday and hid in the bushes along the road to Winchendon. During early evening, as Mrs. J. E. Wilder, said to be of Keene, N. H., in company with Miss Lilla Campbell, a young woman spending a few days with friends at Ship pond, were out for a walk, the stranger started after them muttering to himself and exhibiting a pair of long shears and what appeared to be of a large bible and threatening them.

FOR $10,000 LOAN

Recommendation Made by Street Committee

FOR IMPROVEMENTS OF CERTAIN STREETS

Supt. Whitcomb Puts a Word in For Ennell Street School—Nothing Doing For Stevens Street—Cabot Street Bridge Question Touched Upon

The committee on streets met last night and disposed of a big raft of business. The committee voted to recommend a loan of $10,000 for the improvement of five streets.

Alderman Badger was not present, with the meeting opened and Alderman Combs, the chairman's close friend and admirer, presided.

There was a petition by Jonathan D'Almeida for the acceptance of Wood street and that edgemoor he had the petition was voted a hearing.

Joseph Flynn and others voted that Elm street be macadamized. The committee voted to view the street.

The committee at a recent meeting voted to ask the city engineer to submit certain estimates and he submitted the following:

Macadamizing White street, from Moody street to Bowdoin, $3,000; gravel for the same, $1,500; gravel in Stevens street from Parker to Pine, $500; macadamizing Ennell street from Lakeview avenue to Hilditch, $4,000; macadamizing Victor street from Ennell to Bolivar, $500.

"Welcome to our city," said Councilman Genest when the Cabot street bridge question was introduced. The councilman spoke of the great crush on the bridge when operatives were going to and coming from the mill.

Supt. Putnam said that that had been remedied. It was voted to grant a hearing on the question of changing the grade of the street.

The next question up was the macadamizing of Stevens street, and it was voted to recommend gravel in Stevens street from Parker to Pine, $500.

The following letter was read:

July 30, 1909.
Mr. George Bowers, Clerk Committee on Streets.

Dear Sir—I note by newspaper report that the resolution in favor of edgemoor on Ennell and Victor streets has been recommended to your committee and I am instructed by the city committee to add that body to the list of the school on Ennell street will be greatly advantaged by any improvement on the street and is greatly in need of it.

Respectfully yours,
Arthur K. Whitcomb.

The communication was received and action was postponed. The question of macadamizing Stevens street was next at bat. Councilman Myers said that residences costing $20,000 and $30,000 were being built in Stevens street and he allowed that macadam was not too good a thing.

Supt. Putnam was asked relative to how much work he could do, and he said that a loan of $10,000 to macadamize the following streets would be sufficient at this time: Tremont, Portland and portions of Nichols, Ottawa, Bourne streets; and graveling Fisher street.

Councilman Genest wanted White street laid with gravel at a cost of $1,500, and he made a motion to that effect. The motion was defeated and the $10,000 loan order was unanimously adopted.

MAINE REGIMENT

START IN ON 10 DAYS' CAMP DUTY

AUGUSTA, Me., August 3.—The Second Maine Infantry, National Guard, state militia, commanded by Col. Edward E. Newcomb of Eastport, arrived yesterday for the annual tour of duty of ten days. This will be the longest encampment ever held by the state militia. The first regiment is participating in maneuvers with the coast artillery of the Portland district.

Companies K and L of the Fifth United States Infantry are encamped with the second Maine regiment for the entire tour of duty. Captain Franklin D. Hutton of the 12th U. S. Infantry was detailed by the war department as instructor for the second regiment.

The camp was named Camp Fernald in honor of Gov. Fernald who by virtue of his office is the commander-in-chief of the state forces. Thursday will be Governor's day, when Gov. Fernald will review the troops. The regimental shoot will be held Friday.

THE FIRST INFANTRY

PORTLAND, Me., August 3.—The first regiment state militia began its annual tour of duty with the coast artillery of the Portland district instead of camping at the state camp grounds at Augusta. It will continue ten days. Considerable interest is felt in the work of this regiment as it will work with coast artillery. Hereafter it will be trained as coast artillery and while the formal re-organization will not take place until after the companies will listen to lectures on artillery work. There will be no more spectacular about the duties in this tour. The men will begin to learn the work of handling the big guns and the importance of the various batteries in this district and this will require all of their time. There will be two or three days of simulated attacks by "hostile forces" composed of boats of the quartermaster's department. This will give the men training in range finding.

FOUND IN SWAMP

Mysterious Shooting of Man Stirs Town of Tremont

TRIMONT, Aug. 3.—Mystery surrounds the death of Frank Pina, a Portuguese, aged 35, who was found yesterday afternoon in a swamp on the Carver road, about a mile from this village, with a gunshot wound in his side. The theory of foul play is supported by the statement that he had been in contact with some of his fellow countrymen.

Sunday morning Pina left his wife and two children at their home in Prattown, a small settlement of this village, and started toward Carver road to pick blueberries. He carried a path. Many people in the vicinity of Carver road, near the old Advent campmeeting grounds, saw Pina pass alone. This was the last seen of him alive.

Sunday night when Pina did not return, his wife became frightened and feared that he had been killed. She went through the little settlement weeping and weeping for her husband. At midnight it was decided to organize a searching party. At daybreak yesterday morning a large party started a systematic search through the woods and swamps.

Shot at Close Range
This part of the town is sparsely settled and there are large areas of heavy pine. On either side of the Carver road are swamps where a man could conceal himself and would not be noticed by a passerby.

Shortly before 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon the word was passed that Pina had been found. "Bill Pratt of West Wareham, who had charge of a section of the posse, ran onto Pina's body in a swamp about half a mile from Carver road, toward South Carver. One side of his body was filled with blood.

Beside him was the berry pail partly filled. There was no evidence of a struggle, the body apparently lying where it fell. The wounds show that the person who handled the gun could not have been a great distance from Pina.

When the nature of the death was learned, feeling ran high here, and many of the Portuguese were so frightened that they took to their heels. Medical Examiner Charles Morse of Wareham was notified and viewed the remains. He ordered them taken later to Cornwall's undertaking rooms of Wareham.

Dr. Morse stated last night that death was due to a gunshot wound in the side, but further that that would make no statement at this time whether it was accidental or foul play.

Two Theories

The argument that some of the men of the village put forth is that it was an accident. Officer Herbert Barrows stated that Pina was well Grew Worse in Spite of Six Months of Ablest Treatment—Sleep Terribly Broken—Face, Head and Hands Masses of Dreadful Humor.

A SINGLE SET OF CUTICURA CURED HIM

"I feel it my duty to let you know with what success I have used the Cuticura Remedies. When our baby was born he had eczema and he broke out with what we thought was heat but which gradually grew worse. We called in a doctor. He said it was eczema and from that time we doctored six months with three of the best doctors in Atchison but he only got worse. His face, head and hands were a solid sore. There was no sleep for the suffering for him. We had to tie his little hands to keep him from scratching. He never knew what it was to sleep well from the time he took the disease until he was cured. He kept us awake all hours in the night and his health wasn't what you would call good. We tried everything but the right thing. Finally I got a set of the Cuticura Remedies and am pleased to say we did not use all of them until he was cured. We have waited seven months to see if it would come back but it never has and his skin is clear and fair as it possibly could be. I hope Cuticura may save some one else's little one's suffering and also their pocket-books. John Leason, 1403 Atchison St., Atchison, Kan., Nov. 2 and 17, 1905."

After the fines had been declared yesterday the Manchester Germans promptly assisted in paying the fines and costs and the Lawrence party was at liberty in a few minutes.

A sensational incident of the raid is the reported discovery of two law-abiding German policemen in uniform assisting in keeping order where beer was being sold in violation of New Hampshire law.

Firemen Had Battle With Forest Fire

MANCHESTER, N. H., Aug. 3.—Firemen from South Manchester and the central station had a stubborn fight with a brush and wood fire three miles out on the road to Goff's Falls yesterday on land owned by Mrs. Cassius Webster and the Thompson heirs of Hooksett. The fire burned over 50 acres and got into a growth of pine by the firemen after a stubborn battle. The brush was dry and sun scorched and made good fuel. The fire was fought with shovels and backset fires.

For several days a fire has been burning in a dry peat bog north of Hanover street and west of Franklin park. Last night the smoke was so dense that nearby residents fled to places outside to pass the night so blind, choking and nauseating, were the clouds from the nauseating

The stroke caused smarting of the eyes, and throats of those who had to breathe it and was so dense over the meadows that one could not see across the field.

Firemen have been called out several times to fight it but it is impossible to extinguish without the use of an immense quantity of water, a waste which would be unreasonable in mid-summer with prospects of a drought and scarcity of water ahead.

In places the fire has burned several feet into the ground, the dry peat being burning like a slow match, and when the surface has been drenched the fire started afresh next day in the same

The fire department is keeping confined within a limited area, every man that could be spared being kept on the scene.

BOY WAS KILLED

He Caught Hold of a Live Wire

LEONMINSTER, Aug. 3.—Arthur Solomon, 18 years of age, son of Andrew T. Solomon, 42 Green street, a carriage maker, was electrocuted yesterday afternoon by contact with a high-tension

Young Solomon and two companions about his age, Harold Phillips and Harold Trauberg were beryering, and coming to one of the skeletal remains, the first towers of the company. Solomon declared them to climb it. They refused, and tried to dissuade Solomon, but he failed to heed the warning and skipped to the first crossarm, where the wire runs. Sitting there, he was seen to point his finger toward the wire from which a stream of sparks emitted, and the boy toppled off to the

The accident happened a mile from the nearest house, which was that of John E. Willard, and considerable time elapsed before word reached there and it was two hours before medical aid could be summoned. When it arrived the boy was dead and the body was removed to Willard's, where it was viewed by Assistant Medical E.

Although the boy fell 40 feet and no bones were broken. He was one of a family of six children. Mr. Wells states that the company was testing the wires today. They carry 66,000 volts.

THE SUTTON HAZERS

The dismissal of the Sutton hazers is slight punishment for their share in the tragedy. The punishment should be such as to put an end to hazing permanently. Very few who read the testimony of the inquest can believe that Sutton died by his own hand.

MANY DROWNINGS ON SUNDAY

Sunday was a day of many drowning tragedies in New England. In spite of all such precedents and with full knowledge of the danger, it seems that people will continue to take chances with a deplorable repetition of the consequences. People who cannot swim get beyond their depth or else make too free with the breakers, or go in bathing under conditions that induce an attack of cramps, indigestion or heart failure.

INDUSTRIAL PEACE IN LYNN

It appears that wise counsels have prevailed in the city of Lynn and the threatened shoe strike will not take place. Nothing could be more detrimental to the interests of the shoe workers themselves as well as to the shoe manufacturers, as a strike that would tie up any important part of the shoe factories. At a time when congress is lifting a burden from the industry, it would indeed be poor policy to precipitate a war between employer and employee.

SENATOR LODGE MAY BE OPPOSED

There is some indication that Senator Lodge will have a republican opponent when he comes up again for re-election. It would do the senator a vast amount of good if he had to put up a fight. He has been so independent, so indifferent to the interests of his own state and so solicitous for the interests of the whole country that a good many people believe that Massachusetts is not getting all that she is entitled to from her senators. Senator Lodge is an able man but his talents are devoted mainly to the game of politics rather than the real problems of statesmanship. If he were less of a machine politician he would be a better senator.

DR. HUNTRESS FOR MODIFIED MILK

Dr. Huntress of the local board of health went to Waltham and Cambridge the other day to investigate the merits of what is known as certified milk and also the preparation and sale of modified milk, both being provided mainly for the purpose of reducing the mortality from cholera infantum.

While there is but slight chance of work in this line being started in Lowell, still it is well that some of the health officials keep informed as to what is being done in other cities so that our health department may not be so far behind that it cannot follow in the wake of others.

Certified milk is produced from cows that withstand the tuberculin test every six months and is handled with extraordinary precautions against the multiplication of bacteria in the milk.

The men who milk have to wear immaculate clothing, they have to sterilize their utensils and keep their hands as clean as possible. As a result of the precautions taken, the percentage of bacteria in the milk is reduced to a very slight fraction of what it otherwise would be or what is usual under the ordinary methods.

The chief thing about this milk to make it worth the price, for it costs considerably more than milk handled in the usual way, is that it is free from the germs of tuberculosis found in the milk of cattle affected with the disease.

But milk treated in the ordinary way may be pasteurized so as to destroy these germs with the greater part of the bacteria and thus by a simple process practically the same results may be obtained. Certified milk is not, therefore, an essential in the attainment of the end in view, namely, pure milk. It is, however, quite beneficial for invalids who are inspired by the belief that it is free from disease germs and therefore absolutely safe to drink.

As to modified milk, the case is different. Modified milk is prepared from scientific formulae, one formula being for milk suitable to children under three months old, another for children from three to nine months and a third for those over nine months. In each case the milk is scientifically prepared to meet the natural demands of the child's system at the ages mentioned. The general belief among physicians is that modified milk, properly prepared and properly served is much better than the patent foods on the market, but yet the latter are being used very commonly because of their convenience and because they do not spoil as readily as milk.

Dr. Huntress contemplates the establishment of a station for the preparation and distribution of modified milk during the summer months for the purpose of checking the ravages of cholera infantum.

Some cities have adopted this course in spite of the fact that it is expensive and that its beneficial effects cannot be realized until it has been in use for several years or until the people shall have been educated to its use and had time to drop the patent foods.

Some years ago the Plabsted farm in Tyngsboro made a specialty of modified milk which was in great demand for such children, but the demand was not sufficient to warrant its continuation. The farm, however, was at one time owned by the end of the Vermont revenue line so that the distance was probably the chief obstacle to the success of the undertaking.

Should the board of health undertake to provide modified milk during the hot months of next summer, it would have to prepare the way by a campaign of education in order to create a demand for such food for young children. It would also have to place the modified milk within easy reach of the people who might want it and sell the same much below cost.

If the board wants to adopt this or any other method of reducing the infant mortality from cholera infantum, we do not believe there will be any serious objection provided the results justify the delay.

SEEN AND HEARD

The small boy who fails to betray the family falls short of accomplishing his mission in the world. He usually does it the less certainly, but does it none the less certainly. Incident in a police court from Philadelphia. It is related that a minister who had been engaged to marry a girl, a pupil in one of the suburbs of that city, was walking along a shady road when he came upon a small boy who was digging energetically in a bank at the roadside. The minister thought that the boy was digging for worms for a fishing excursion and asked him whether or not that was the cause of his Sunday industry. "No," the boy replied, "I'm digging for a woodchuck." This appeared to the minister to be just as wicked as digging for worms and he proceeded to give the boy a lecture. "Don't you know," he concluded, "that it is wrong to do that on Sunday? You'll never get your woodchuck! The boy looked up as if badly frightened. "Would you let him?" he exclaimed. "Why, yes, I've got to get him! The minister's cousin, on his house for dinner today and we didn't get an insect."

THINGS TO FORGET

If you see a tall fellow ahead of a crowd. A leader of men, marching fearless and proud. And you know of a tale whose mere telling alone would cause his proud head to be in anguish he bowed. It's a pretty good plan to forget it. If you know of a skeleton hidden away in a closet, a skeleton garden, and kept from the day. In the dark, and whose showing, whose sudden display, would cause grief and sorrow and life-long misery. It's a pretty good plan to forget it. If you know of a thing that will darken the joy. Of a man or a woman, a girl or a boy, that will when a smile, or the least way away. A fellow, or cause any pleasure to play. It's a pretty good plan to forget it. Can it be said that the man inter-

PEOPLE OF NOTE

William Homer Leavitt, the divorced husband of William J. Bayard's daughter, may be starting facts but in stating them he talks like the hero of a cheap novel. "My wife," says William Homer, "was jealous of the art impulse which enthralled me. Her tastes are domestic. She wanted our lives to be a series of commonplaces of home. My ambitions were more lofty. Art called me to Europe. I was in the grip of a master passion to paint a great picture."

Years ago some unscrupulous person described Philip G. Love as a very poor fellow and a brilliant player. That piece of dirt had wide currency in the press, but now E. G. Lovey tells the readers of Putnam's that Mr. Knox never played a game of billiards in his life.

"There will be no more how-ling to the rich by the curious agents of this port," announced Collector William Lock, Jr., in New York, in a more-than-through-easy-subsidy. He is to enforce the poor school teacher who had taken a frugal trip abroad had all the worst of it, but from now on, we are going to have quicker clearance of revenues and fewer disgruntled citizens."

Father Ducey, beloved by many New Yorkers, has been very ill and is feared that he is near death. Now he is better, and in a letter written to the editor of the newspapers, he thanks "the innumerable number of all classes of rich, poor, socially and in his Catholic and non-Catholic brethren for the great solicitude and affection manifested by them. He is not able to write three hundred or more people, and he takes this means to let them know how in his heart of hearts."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-McBain Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Elements of the name—Ducey's—and take no other.

FOR NAVAL DEFENSE

Plans for Well Equipped Station at Cavite, P. I.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Plans of the navy department contemplate a large and efficient station of submarine torpedoes for defensive purposes at the United States naval station at Cavite, Philippine Islands. Always two vessels are there and before long the flotilla will be composed of eight such vessels.

The Moccasin and Adler have been fitted with conning towers and batteries and are now on the first stage of their long voyage to the islands on board the collier Caesar. The Caesar will sail for Manila via the Suez canal. The Moccasin and Adler were shipped in the same manner as the Shark which was loaded on a special collier constructed at the after deck of the collier. All their gear and machinery was stowed in the collier holds. Upon reaching their destination they are to be slid over the side and into the water.

Later on the submarines Grampus and Pike, which are now at San Francisco will be taken to the Philippines. Besides these are two submarines being built at San Francisco. Meanwhile the Atlantic has a guard of four large submarines and one small one, to which will be added seven new boats which are almost completed making a fleet of twelve.

Felled Nurse to the Ground

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Henry Roth, an Italian, 214 Broadway, yesterday afternoon, while being transferred from the East River to the city, on Blackwell Island, yesterday afternoon, he was lying on a cot on board the ambulance boat Lowell when he suddenly leaped up, struck the woman nurse to the floor and climbed half way through a window in an attempt to jump overboard.

The nurse recovered in time to seize and pull him back. There followed a desperate struggle between the woman and the man, during which she screamed for aid. Attendees finally overpowered Roth and strapped him to a cot.

Instead of proceeding to Blackwell Island, the boat was rushed to East Twenty-sixth street and an ambulance called from Bellevue. The man died eighteen minutes after reaching the hospital, before the surgeon could make a diagnosis of his case.

CONG. J. A. KELIHER

Was Arrested by Order of Speaker Cannon

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 3.—Representative John A. Keliher of Boston was arrested by order of Speaker Cannon at the Union station by the sergeant-at-arms of the house last night. Keliher was about to board a train for Boston.

The officer told the Boston congressman that he could not leave town until he received permission from Speaker Cannon.

A number of other members of the house were halted at the station by house officers.

Keliher wanted to leave town Saturday night after he had voted against the tariff bill. He remained over until yesterday, however, to vote on the urgent deficiency appropriation bill.

No vote was taken and Keliher went to his apartments, packed his clothes, and went to the station, planning to be in Boston this morning to keep an important business engagement.

He was about to board the train when the sergeant-at-arms placed him under arrest and ordered him to remain in Washington.

Keliher protested that he had important business to transact at home and that he had arranged to return to Washington on receipt of a wire that his vote was needed.

The officer would take no explanation, so Keliher was compelled to go back to his apartments.

All of the arrests were made on the order of Speaker Cannon, who wants a quorum here to pass the deficiency bill and the resolution eliminating the joker in the leather schedule.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 3.—Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore, head of the Catholic church in the United States, accompanied by Bishop J. J. O'Connell of San Francisco, passed through here late last night on his way to Salt Lake, Utah, where he will dedicate a church.

The cardinal had retired, but Bishop O'Connell, who has traveled extensively in Spain, was interested in the late news from that country and when asked for a statement said:

"The signs have been pointing to apostasy for some time. There can be no question regarding the unspeakable atrocities committed. The symptoms are the same as those preceding the French revolution."

Great Suffering Among the People of Acapulco

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 3.—A devastating earthquake still continues. All buildings which remain standing are untenable, a heavy rain is falling and many are suffering from want of shelter. The tents and temporary shacks in which the people are living are pronounced miserably inadequate. A number of citizens are acting as special policemen. There has been some looting. Food, clothing and medicine are urgently needed, but thus far no relief steps have been taken by the federal government.

It is stated at the war department that no request for national aid has been received. It is said relief measures are held up through red tape.

EXPECT TROUBLE

If the Strikers Are Evicted

PITTSBURG, Aug. 3.—Fears of serious trouble are entertained if the expected eviction of 48 strikers and their families is attempted by the Pressed Steel Car Co. at their houses near the company's plant at Schoenerville today.

A double force of deputies with the Pennsylvania state constabulary is on guard at the works. At a mass meeting held on Indian mound last night, strike leaders counseled the men to maintain peace, but it is predicted that the sight of their wives and children being summarily forced into the streets will rouse the idle workmen to a frenzy. The strikers claim that the hope of a quick settlement of the difficulties existing between them and the company is bright and they will make further efforts today to bring their alleged grievances before representatives of the company.

BITTEN BY DOG

A Seven Year Old Girl Was Severely Injured

Mary Murphy, aged seven years, of 160 South street, was taken to the Emergency hospital in Tyler street today suffering from wounds on the face inflicted by a dog.

The little girl was playing about her house yesterday and when she stepped to pick up something from the sidewalk the dog jumped at her and bit her on the face. The wounds were not considered serious until this morning when it was found that the little one's face was badly swollen and she suffered much pain.

She was taken to the hospital where it was found that there were five lacerations on the face. She received treatment and later was taken to her home.

Arm Lacerated
Joseph Dempsey, aged 55 years, of 47 Rock street, met with a painful injury while at work at the Walter L. Parker Hobbin Co.'s works this morning. He was at work on a machine which is erated with a belt for carrying saw-the dust away. It is necessary to soap this belt from time to time and while in the act of doing so he slipped and his right arm came in contact with a blade on another machine which inflicted a laceration that extends from the elbow to the wrist. The flesh was penetrated to the bone. All of the arteries and nerves were severed and he suffered much pain as a result of the laceration. He was removed in the ambulance to the Emergency hospital where it was found necessary to take

32 stitches in the wound.

TRIED SUICIDE
Young Widow Had Lost
Her Fiance

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The sorrow of losing a fiance just before her marriage-day caused Mrs. Bessie Freystadt, a young widow who had lost her husband soon after their wedding, to attempt suicide yesterday in her apartment in the Polonica, at No. 100 West One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street.

An elevator boy detected gas in the hall, and tracing it to her door, called Policeman Metz, who forced his way in and found the woman in bed, with the end of a tube, which was fastened to the gas jet, close to her mouth.

She was gasping and almost dead, but quick work by Dr. Philip Caron, who lives in the house, and Dr. Da Bois, of the J. Hood Wright Hospital ambulance, saved her.

While semi-conscious at the hospital, Mrs. Freystadt kept calling for "Dave." She begged "Dave" to speak to her, to come back to her. "Dave," it appeared, was engaged to marry her. When she was able to talk clearly, she said: "I am thirty years old, and a widow. I married nine years ago and within a few months my husband died and I was broken-hearted. I thought I would never be happy again; but recently I met another man whom I learned to love, and I was to have married him last week. But early in the week he died, too; and was left alone to suffer alone. I could not stand it, so I tried to follow the men I had loved."

The doctors and police tried to find out where Mrs. Freystadt had come from, since she apparently was not a New Yorker. But she refused to tell them anything about herself, her husband or her fiance. She is apparently well-to-do, for she had a luxuriant apartment, and on her fingers when she tried to die were eight valuable rings.

The apartment house people said they knew nothing of her. Another woman whose name was not even known, shared the apartment with Mrs. Freystadt, they said. This woman was not seen about the place yesterday.

Mrs. Freystadt will recover, the hospital doctors said. The police declared that they didn't know whether or not she would be arrested for attempting suicide.

NOT IDENTIFIED

The latest report is to the effect that the unknown is supposed to be a resident of Chelmsford. Mr. Finnegan will hold the remains until tomorrow morning.

KILLED BY TRAIN PUTNAM AFFAIR

The Body of John Roark Was Horribly Mutilated
To Be Discussed by the Board
of Aldermen Tonight

John Roark, aged about 35 years, was struck and instantly killed by the Suban freight at the Middlesex street railroad crossing about 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. Roark was drawn under the rapidly moving wheels of the engine, and his body terribly mangled. According to spectators who witnessed the accident, neither the engineer of the train nor the gate tender at the crossing was to blame for the death of the man.

The gates were down for a minute or more when Roark was seen to come from the direction of the depot and walk directly across the tracks. As the freight train came into sight people nearby shouted a warning to the man, but he paid no attention and continued to walk slowly over the track directly in the path of the approaching train.

The engineer sounded the whistle for "down brakes" and immediately applied his emergency brake, but before the train could be brought to a stop one of the side beams struck Roark and threw him under the wheels of the engine. The body was run over and whirled about the wheels and mangled remains were thrown to one side of the track.

A glance at the mutilated body showed that life was extinct. Undertaker Haley was notified and the remains were taken to his funeral parlors in Branch street.

Witnesses state that if the engine had been a fraction of a second later in reaching the spot where it struck Roark that the latter would have escaped with his life, for one more step would have carried him beyond the danger point.

The Putnam mayor will go before the board of aldermen this evening to attempt to remove Edward P. Putnam from the office of superintendent of streets.

The aldermen will hold an adjourned meeting and the common council will meet in special session. It was stated that the mayor would present at the meeting of the board of aldermen and will endeavor to force the Putnam matter through the board.

The common council at its last meeting voted to appoint a joint committee to investigate the mayor's charges against the superintendent of streets. The committee was not appointed but will be appointed this evening.

The mayor is not to have a place on the committee, at least that was the original intent, and that is part of the reason why it is stated that the mayor will preside at the meeting this evening.

It is expected that the aldermen will appoint a committee to work in conjunction with the committee from the lower board. Supt. Putnam courts a full investigation, but just how the investigation is going to be made is a question.

The mayor has charged Supt. Putnam with having, or allowing to be laid, unmarked blocks in Middlesex street. He had the blocks measured by Police Commissioner MacFarlane, his former secretary, Police officers Palmer, Parrie, Moore and a few others and in their reports they declare they found blocks that were not as large as the specifications called for. But the fact remains that the paving job is receiving the hushing touch in Middlesex street and in order to make any kind of a thorough examination the blocks will have to be dug up. Mr. Putnam says, however, that it can be done and he wants it done. Supt. Putnam is responsible only for the blocks laid, not for any that have been removed.

CHILDREN'S ROOM

Is the Most Attractive Spot at the Public Library

Of all the interesting spots at the city library there is none to compare with the children's reading room in the basement. The room and its contents speak for themselves. The little picture books, the simple story and the general atmosphere of the place tells of the little ones and it just simply appeals to one. The cry of the wild is not half so fascinating as is the place where children congregate.

It was "way back in 1903 that the children's reading room was opened at the library and it was only within the last few weeks that it has received its finishing touches. It is well worth one's while to visit the room, especially after school hours, and see how happy the little ones can be when the atmosphere and environments are right.

The entrance to the room is from Moody street and the young woman in charge, Miss Bertha Kyle, is only too glad to show visitors about and entertain them. The room has been fitted up with an effect that is a little bit on the Dutch. The walls have the Dutch room color, sort of dark green, and there are red Dutch curtains on the windows.

The new which was laid by the American Mission Society and company of this city, is called a Karbolith floor and it looks as if it might wear for ages. There are tables and seats, gowns, seats and tables adapted to the size of the little patrons and the room is surrounded on all sides by bookshelves secured from selected lists.

The room is brilliantly lighted with tungsten lights and in this room so well appointed and so nicely managed over 500 children have visited in one day, and as many as 100 at one time.

There is no prettier sight, perhaps, than that of the little mothers, so called. The little mothers are the seven or eight-year-olds who bring their little brothers and sisters to the reading room to show them the picture books. They have the "best time" over and the usual promise is "we'll come again tomorrow."

The room is open from noon until 6 o'clock at night and all day Saturday. Quite frequently the parents accompany their children and this is a good practice. The reading room has the parent almost as much as the child and by helping the parent gives greater assistance to the child. The mother who visits the reading room fathers suggestions, as it were, and finds content the food for thought in the way that the children are treated by these in charge of the room.

All of the expense connected with the room in question has been paid for out of the Davis fund and never was a fund put to a better purpose. In going about the library with Librarian Chase, the reporter for The Sun asked if the Tungsten lights were giving satisfaction. Mr. Chase replied as follows: "Yes, the Tungsten lights are giving the very best satisfaction. They have already paid for the expense of putting them in and we consider that it is a saving of nearly half of the cost of former lighting."

MET WITH ACCIDENT

FRANKFORT, Aug. 3.—The airship Zeppelin II left here today for Cologne, a distance of 115 miles but was obliged to return on account of an accident to her machinery. She had gone but a short distance when one of her propeller blades broke and another worked loose and fell to the ground. The airship descended at the same place where it had started. This is the second unsuccessful attempt the airship has made to reach Cologne.

MANS LAUGHTER

PROVINCETOWN, Aug. 3.—Attorney General Dana Malone of Massachusetts sent State Officer Ernest Bradford here today with a warrant for David W. Williams, colored, of Marietta, Ga., and a mess band on the battleship Vermont, who is charged in the warrant with manslaughter in causing the death of Harrison H. Foster in a boxing bout last Friday.

Officer Bradford started out to the Vermont at 12:30 o'clock and stated if the captain of the vessel refused to give up the man, an appeal would be made to Rear Admiral Schroeder.

State Officer Bradford came from Boston on the noon train and at once engaged the services of a boatman to take him to the Vermont. He declared that the state authorities would make every effort to investigate the death of Foster and that if the officers of the fleet refused to give Williams up, an appeal would be made to the department at Washington.

Bradford refused to show his warrant before going out to the Vermont and declared that it was from the attorney general.

The last witness was Thomas Clifford, an inmate in the house who saw Mrs. Richmond lying on the kitchen floor with the revolver in her hand. He took the revolver away and found it partially loaded.

After Attorney Clogh had declared in a brief argument that there was not sufficient evidence to hold the woman, although he had called two witnesses in her behalf Judge Amy decided that there was enough to warrant an investigation by the grand jury and held the woman without bail. The grand jury meets in Lowell September 7th.

MURDER CHARGED

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., August 3.—District Attorney John J. Higgins came up today from Provincetown, where he is spending his vacation, to take personal charge of the government's case in the hearing of Mrs. Elizabeth Richmond, charged with the murder of Stewart McTavish on July 25.

The hearing was before Judge Charles Almy in the district court. McTavish was found dead in a room at the Hotel Florence, Cambridge St., East Cambridge, a boardinghouse conducted by Mrs. Richmond, with a bullet wound in the head, and by an axe, wounds apparently caused by an axe.

He was employed as a teamster at the state insane hospital at East Gardner and had come to Boston ostensibly to attend his sister's wedding, but did not appear at the economy.

Mrs. Richmond was represented by Attorney Ralph W. Clogh of Boston.

Medical Examiner Swan, the first of the 15 witnesses to take the stand told of his examination of the body of McTavish and said he found a bullet hole in the left side of the head and wounds on the right side evidently caused by an axe. Death, he said, was due to multiple injuries, the skull having been fractured.

The finding of the body was described by John Prohm, a cook employed at the hotel. He said he and Timothy Clifford, a boarder, missing McTavish, went to his room and found the body lying on the bed. He had not seen McTavish since the previous morning.

On the previous afternoon Mrs. Richmond had locked her door and the room and window which he entered to her and asked for some money to buy some food for the children, she swore at him.

District Attorney Higgins suddenly asked the witness:

"You didn't tell McTavish, did you?"

"No, sir," says the reply.

Timothy Clifford sat up, saying with Prohm to McTavish's room and finding his body. He said that Mrs. Richmond at that time was in the kitchen door, unconscious, and that he had seen her since that time.

He said that McTavish was not responsible for his own death, but that he had been killed by the axe.

He said that he had seen the axe in the kitchen door, unconscious, and that he had seen her since that time.

EIGHT SWIMMERS

Are Trying to Make Boston Light

BOSTON, Aug. 3.—Braving a light east wind, but with a strong favorable tide, six strong swimmers started from Charles river bridge shortly after 1 p.m. today to accomplish the hitherto unswum eight miles to Boston light.

The swimmers were Roger Cutler, the Harvard varsity stroke, Fred Young, a Charlestown fireman, Joseph Badaracco, of the North End, John Everett of Charlestown, John Bray of East Boston and John Campbell, 15-years old, of Governor's island.

Each man was well covered with oil before starting, while all were accompanied by attendants in row boats.

Many swimmers, both professional and amateur, have assayed the feat of landing at Boston light but all have failed although Miss Annette Kitterman last year swam within a mile of the beacon before giving up.

At 2:40 p.m. the swimmers were below Castle island, three miles from the start, and all seemed to be in good condition.

The swimmers made fairly good progress against the head wind, and were nearly abreast of the light when, five miles from the start at 3:30 p.m., soldiers at the fort reported that they could see six boats in the water as they approached the light.

THE HOUSE

HELD A SESSION THAT LASTED SEVEN MINUTES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—After being in session seven minutes today, the house took recess until 3 o'clock this afternoon. Before this adjournment was made, Mr. Clark (Mo.) wanted to satisfy himself as to the reason for the adjournment, and Mr. Dabney (Pa.), who made the motion, on the subject. He was told it was in order that the members might take action on the conference report on the urgent deficiency appropriation bill, which, it was anticipated, would be ready by that time.

"You are not going to bring in the tariff bill, are you?" queried Mr. Clark, who evidently entertained a suspicion that the republicans were planning to take the minority by surprise.

"Oh, not today," responded Mr. Dabney with a smile. "I will bring it in tomorrow."

When the house convened there was very slight attendance.

THE TARIFF REPORT

The Senate Will Vote On It Thursday Afternoon

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The tariff conference report will be voted upon in the senate at 2 p. m. Thursday. An agreement to this effect was reached today at 12.30 o'clock at the conclusion of a speech by Senator Clapp.

The unanimous consent agreement was reached on motion of Senator Bailey.

Effort was made by informal conference to agree upon 3 p. m. tomorrow as the time at which a vote should be taken, but some senators feared that all of the speeches to be made could not be completed by that hour, and therefore was regarded as a better plan to have the vote on Thursday.

A variety of opinion was given out concerning the effect of the paragraph under consideration. Mr. Clapp believed that it limited the power of the president, while Mr. Crawford, viewing it as an attempt to accomplish that end did not think it would operate that way.

Mr. Heyburn insisted it would give no authority to the president to obtain the cost of production at home and abroad, and to do anything except to determine what action should be taken respecting the operation of the maximum and minimum clause.

Mr. Newland having said that he was greatly gratified by the assurance given by the chairman of the finance committee, Senator Stone with a half suppressed smile suggested that the assurance had been given that the committee should receive the translation of the German government report on the cost of production in Germany.

Only a few senators were in their seats when the senate was called to order by Mr. Cullison and did not await the appearance of a quorum before giving his notice.

"If," he added, "we may judge from the press reports, the cotton bagging provision of the senate was stricken from the bill at the instance of two or three manufacturers of this article, I should like to see the bill."

Objection was made by Senator Clapp to the provision of the maximum and minimum clause, dating the six months' notice of an abrogation of

VENERABLE HIBERNIAN

Peter Riley, Aged 93 Years, Passed Away

Mr. Peter Riley, the oldest Hibernian in Lowell, and it is believed, in all America, and a popular resident of Lowell since 1815, passed away at his home, 115 North Street, yesterday afternoon, at the age of 93 years, one month, and one day.

The old gentleman had been failing steadily for the past six months and for 10 weeks had been confined to his bed. During his long confinement he never complained and the kindly manner and good nature never failed him.

He was a native of Ireland, and was a member of the old St. Vincent de Paul society, which in the early days of the hospital devoted its efforts to the raising of funds for the support of the worthy institution.

He became a voter in 1853 and ever afterwards carefully preserved his naturalized voter in the city. He was a loyal in-the-wood democrat and never missed a caucus or an election.

A census in his ward would not be complete if the checkers hadn't crossed his name as having voted. His last vote was cast for Ex-Mayor Casey, of whom he was an ardent admirer who called for him at his house and took him to the polls in an auto. At that time Mr. Riley said to friends that he felt he could last just one more election.

He was a devout attendant of St. Patrick's church and his venerable figure was a familiar one at mass every Sunday and holiday for no rigorous weather or passing ailment could keep him from church and he attended constantly.

He was a most lovable character, the son of honesty, mentally keen, with the characteristic wit and humor of his race, kind and charitable to a fault. Aside from the Hibernian order he belonged to no society, taking his greatest pleasure at the family last night and so it was that three daughters, Miss Annie, Mary and Margaret Riley, and one grandson, Mr. Arthur Connors, the funeral will take place from the house, 115 North Street, on Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock. Requiem high mass at St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock. Funeral in charge of Undertaker Peter Davey.

They went to the game and conceived the idea of being married at that time. The fact has been kept a secret all this time. The bride has been living with her parents here and the groom has been completing his medical education. He was attending Dartmouth at the time of his marriage. The bride is a graduate of Thornton academy.

FAVORITES LOST

Hard Fought Races at Kalamazoo

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Aug. 3.—Three hard fought races featured the opening of the Grand Circuit races on a track that was slow from rain early yesterday morning.

Two favorites were beaten, the winners of these events hardly being expected of having enough ability to win from such fields.

The 208 yard stake which looked like a gift for the kind that have won by Baron Whips in straight heats. Hal Raven led to the three quarters in the first heat, and then he failed to respond to a drive being unable to pace fast enough on such a track. After that Hal Raven did better but could not endanger the lead of Baron Whips. Five heats were run in the 211 trot in which the Guard was choice. Peter Baltz won the first in the stretch, Belle Bird won the second by inches from Nancy Royce, and Nemo took the third and fourth. In the fifth Nancy tried and Peter Baltz again landed in a drive with inner guard. This time Peter Baltz lost money as she stands best in the summary.

Lady Jones had all she wanted to beat Carolyn in the 205 trot. Carolyn broke in the stretch in three of the heats and Lady Jones beat him through his mistakes, although she broke in the second heat.

Mary K. had no trouble in the 225 pace, but she was a bad break in the last heat and then coming out and winning. The summaries:

BOY WAS KILLED

He Caught Hold of a Live Wire

LEONHART, Aug. 3.—Arthur Solomon, 16 years of age, son of Andrew T. Solomon, 42 Green street, a carriage maker, was electrocuted yesterday afternoon while working on a high-tension wire of the Connecticut river transmission company in the Notown district, an isolated locality five miles north of here.

Young Solomon and two companions about his age, Harold Phillips and Harold Cavanaugh, were berrying, and coming to one of the skeleton steel 40-foot towers of the company. Solomon dared them to climb it. They refused and tried to dissuade Solomon. He failed to heed the warning and climbed to the first crossarm, where the wire runs. Sitting there, he was seen to point his finger toward the wire, when which a stream of sparks emitted, and the boy toppled off to the ground limp and practically lifeless, although he breathed faintly for some time afterward.

The accident happened a mile from the nearest house, which was that of John T. Willard, and considerable time elapsed before word reached there, and it was two hours before medical aid could be summoned. When it arrived the boy was dead and the body was removed to Willard's, where it was viewed by Assistant Medical Examiner Appleton H. Pierce, who stated that death was due to electric shock.

Although the boy fell 40 feet and struck a steel brace in coming down, no bones were broken. He was one of a family of six children. Mr. Willard states that the company was testing the wires today. They carry 66,000 volts.

COULD NOT SWIM

MAN WAS DROWNED IN MOUNT HOPE BAY

FALL RIVER, August 3.—Rolling off a launch cabin top upon which he had been asleep, Rosario Tompney, a weaver, fell into Mount Hope bay and was drowned last night. Companions in the boat did not know of the accident until too late to save Tompney, who was unable to swim. He was 36 years old and single.

ATTACK PRIEST

ATTACK PRIEST

UTICA, N. Y., Aug. 3.—It has been known that an effort was made Saturday night to kidnap the Rev. Fr. Suck, who has been acting pastor of Holy Trinity parish Roman Catholic church since the Rev. Fr. Pank's death after a long illness.

Father Suck fled from the city, going to Syracuse where he placed the matter before Bishop P. A. Madden. The latter advised him to return. Yesterday Father Suck returned, saying he was fearful of his life.

THE SUTTON HAZERS

The dismissal of the Sutton hazers is slight punishment for their share in the tragedy. The punishment should be such as to put an end to hazing permanently. Very few who read the testimony at the inquest can believe that Sutton died by his own hand.

MANY DROWNINGS ON SUNDAY

Sunday was a day of many drowning tragedies in New England. In spite of all such precedents and with full knowledge of the danger, it seems that people will continue to take chances with a deplorable repetition of the consequences. People who cannot swim get beyond their depth or else make too free with the breakers, or go in bathing under conditions that induce an attack of cramps, indigestion or heart failure.

INDUSTRIAL PEACE IN LYNN

It appears that wise counsels have prevailed in the city of Lynn and the threatened shoe strike will not take place. Nothing could be more detrimental to the interests of the shoe workers themselves as well as to the shoe manufacturers, as a strike that would tie up any important part of the shoe factories. At a time when congress is lifting a burden from the industry, it would indeed be poor policy to precipitate a war between employer and employee.

SENATOR LODGE MAY BE OPPOSED

There is some indication that Senator Lodge will have a republican opponent when he comes up again for re-election. It would do the senator a vast amount of good if he had to put up a fight. He has been so independent, so indifferent to the interests of his own state and so solicitous for the interests of the whole country that a good many people believe that Massachusetts is not getting all that she is entitled to from her senators. Senator Lodge is an able man but his talents are devoted mainly to the game of politics rather than the real problems of statesmanship. If he were less of a machine politician he would be a better senator.

DR. HUNTRESS FOR MODIFIED MILK

Dr. Huntress of the local board of health went to Waltham and Cambridge the other day to investigate the merits of what is known as certified milk and also the preparation and sale of modified milk, both being provided mainly for the purpose of reducing the mortality from cholera infantum.

While there is but slight chance of work in this line being started in Lowell, still it is well that some of the health officials keep informed as to what is being done in other cities so that our health department may not be so far behind that it cannot follow in the wake of others.

Certified milk is produced from cows that withstand the tuberculin test every six months and is handled with extraordinary precautions against the multiplication of bacteria in the milk.

The men who milk have to wear immaculate clothing, they have to sterilize their utensils and keep their hands as clean as possible. As a result of the precautions taken, the percentage of bacteria in the milk is reduced to a very slight fraction of what it otherwise would be or what is usual under the ordinary methods.

The chief thing about this milk to make it worth the price, for it costs considerably more than milk handled in the usual way, is that it is free from the germs of tuberculosis found in the milk of cattle affected with the disease.

But milk treated in the ordinary way may be pasteurized so as to destroy these germs with the greater part of the bacteria and thus by a simple process practically the same result may be obtained. Certified milk is not, therefore, an essential in the attainment of the end in view, namely, pure milk. It is, however, quite beneficial for invalids who are inspired by the belief that it is free from disease germs and therefore absolutely safe to drink.

As to modified milk, the case is different. Modified milk is prepared from scientific formulas, one formula being for milk suitable to children under three months old, another for children from three to nine months and a third for those over nine months. In each case the milk is scientifically prepared to meet the natural demands of the child's system at the ages mentioned. The general belief among physicians is that modified milk, properly prepared and properly served is much better than the patent foods on the market, but yet the latter are being used very commonly because of their convenience and because they do not spoil as readily as milk.

Dr. Huntress contemplates the establishment of a station for the preparation and distribution of modified milk during the summer months for the purpose of checking the ravages of cholera infantum.

Some cities have adopted this course in spite of the fact that it is expensive and that its beneficial effects cannot be realized until it has been in use for several years or until the people shall have been educated to use and inclined to drop the patent foods.

Some years ago the United Fruit Company made a specialty of modified milk which was in great demand in such children, but the demand was not sufficient to warrant its continuation. The firm, however, was at least two miles from the end of the Vermont avenue car line so that the distance was probably the chief obstacle to the success of the undertaking.

Should the board of health undertake to provide modified milk during the hot weather, next summer, it would have a ready way by a campaign of education so as to create a demand for such food for young children.

It would also have to place the modified milk within easy access of the people who might want it and sell the same much below cost.

If the board wants to accept this or any other method of reducing the great infant mortality from cholera infantum, we do not believe there will be any serious objection provided the results justify the outlay.

SEEN AND HEARD

The small boy who fails to betray the family falls short of accomplishing his mission in the world. He usually does it in a very certain way, he does it none the less certainly. An incident in point comes from Philadelphia. It is related that a minister who had been engaged to temporarily fill a pulpit in one of the suburbs of that city was walking along a shady road when he came upon a small boy who was digging energetically in a bank at the roadside. The minister thought that the boy was digging for worms for a fishing excursion and asked him whether or not that was the cause of his Sunday industry. "No," the boy replied, "that ain't it. I'm digging for a woodchuck." This appeared to the minister to be just as wicked as digging for worms and he proceeded to give the boy a lecture. "Don't you know," he concluded, "that it is wrong to do that on Sunday? You'll never get your woodchuck." The boy looked up as if badly frightened. "Well, I've got to get him," the minister's cousin to our house for dinner today and we ain't got no meat."

THINGS TO FORGET

If you see a tall fellow ahead of a crowd, A leader of men, marching fearless and proud, And you know of a tale whose mere telling alone Would cause his proud head to be in anguish bowed, It's a pretty good plan to forget it. If you know of a skeleton hidden away in a closet, and guarded, and kept from the day, In the dark, and whose showing would be a sudden display, Would cause grief and sorrow and lifelong dismay, It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

If you know of a thing that will darken the day, Of a man or a woman, a girl or a boy, That will, when you see it, or hear it, or read it, or say it, A fellow, or cause any gladness to decay, It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

Can it be said that the man inter-

PEOPLE OF NOTE

William Homer Leavitt, the divorced husband of William J. Bryan's daughter, may be starting facts but in stating them he talks like the hero of a cheap novel. "My wife," says William Homer, "was jealous of the art impulse which enthralled me. Her affection for me was so great that she wanted me to live in the center of the common places of home. My ambition was more lofty. Art called me to Europe. I was in the grip of a master passion to paint a great picture."

Years ago some unscrupulous person described Philander C. Knox as a very fond of billiards and a brilliant player. That piece of fiction, but which currency in the press, but now E. G. Lowry tells the readers of Putnam's that Mr. Knox never played a game of billiards in his life.

"There will be no more howling to the rich by the customs agents of this port," announced Collector William Lusk, Jr., in New York. "No more skip-through-the-submarine. Here, before the poor school teacher who had taken a foreign trip abroad had all the worst of it, but from now on we are going to have quicker clearance, more revenues and fewer disgruntled citizens."

Father Ducey, beloved by many New Yorkers, has been very ill and it was feared that he would die. Now he is better, and in a letter written over, he thanks "the innumerable number of all classes, of rich, poor, socially eminent and his Catholic and non-Catholic brethren for the great solicitude and affection manifested by them. He is not able to write these hundreds of people, and he takes this means to let them know how in his heart of hearts he appreciates their innumerable manifestations of great kindness."

Herbert Samuel, who was recently named as chancellor of Lancaster, with a seat in the cabinet, is the first Jew to attain to that distinction in England. He is only 33 years old, and has been in parliament six years. He is the brother of Edward Samuel, who represents Whitechapel in parliament and a nephew of Lord Swaythling, who was formerly Sir Samuel Montagu.

Habert Dietrich, a popular actor of Berlin, is also a sculptor. He has relief of "Machinsky" has won much praise at the gallery where it is now on exhibition, and a bronze replica of his has been placed in the Lessing house.

It is said that if the new play of Rostand, "Chandelier," succeeds, there will, no doubt, be the "Chaparral Chandelier," which will have a hint of the play in its execution, which is to be fashioned like the garden flower of that name. In fact, this flower is certain to have some recognition by milliners next winter.

A new club of national geographers has just been organized in Washington. This is the National Geographical Society, America's, Mrs. Samuel Spencer, president. Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. J. B. Foraker are officers also of the new club, which has taken a house on Connecticut avenue, where all the visiting Colonial Dames will be welcomed to membership.

Milka Terina, in her time one of the greatest artists of the operatic stage, has been engaged to head the faculty of teachers of song at the New York Institute of Music and will begin her work this fall. The first and by all judgment the best "Kundry" that ever appeared outside of Bayreuth, the creator of Puccini's "Parsifal" in this country, famous also for her "Scheherazade" and her "Jodelle," a nervous affliction took her from the stage too soon. It will be some compensation, says an exchange, if she can impart even a little of her glorious art to those pupils who come to her.

World renowned musicians consider their hands their greatest asset, and nearly all have those members highly insured. J. Kuhnke's hands are insured for $50,000. Among other great musicians whose hands are insured for large sums are Paderewski, Lazzari, Levy, Mme. Roger Mielos, Mme. Jeanne Mortier, Lucien Wurmser, Kiebert, Louis Blum, Ralph Furgo, Riser, Mme. Laskowska, Cortot, Edvard Riser and Muscatelli.

No conditions were named when the deposit was made. Johnson is anxious to meet Jeffries personally at the earliest possible date and talk things over. "Then," said Johnson, "we can find out just where we stand and get down to business at once. As long as we stand and talk at long range nothing will ever come of this argument."

"Let's see when we are bluffing or four-flushing," said Little, when he put up the money.

"Of this one thing I want to warn Jeffries before he goes into executive session with us. Great fighter though he once was, he is not champion at the present, and I must think that he can dictate to us as he would to a champion. Jack Johnson is champion of the world and will have something to say about the details of the match."

"Mind you, we have no thought of asking anything unreasonable. Neither do we want him to expect to have the better of it in the terms. The better man in this fight, if it is arranged, is going to carry off the big end of the money. That's going to be the note of our negotiations with the champion. While Jeffries issued his terms in a dictatorial manner, as if we were crawling on hands and knees to carry favor with him, we are going to pay no attention to that."

"If we meet we will start right at the beginning and work up a right match—a match in which the public may have confidence, one that will decide this great question. We want no favors and will give none. Any place we set us for the battle. Even his own club in Los Angeles would be agreeable to us."

"England, where over $100,000 could easily be obtained, would suit us, or Australia, although I think that is out of the question."

BERGER PLEASED

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Sam Berger, manager for James J. Jeffries, expressed considerable delight, and said: "Well, I guess there'll be a fight," when informed yesterday that Jack Johnson had posted $5000 in Chicago yesterday to bind a match with Jeffries for the heavyweight championship.

As to a report that Johnson wants Jeffries to agree to the time and place for the match before the latter goes abroad, Berger said:

"How can Jeffries name any time or place for the fight? Particularly a place before a bid has been received from a promoter? We would like to know when and where as well as Johnson, but we are not mind readers."

"If Johnson means business," he continued, "he should come here to New York as soon as he bids for the fight over in which he and I will go over them, and anything that is reasonably good to us both, we will accept."

"Jeffries is dealing with Johnson and the public in good faith. He only wants what is fair and reasonable. Any other champion and Jeffries is the real champion, would have demanded 50 per cent. of the gate or purse, but he is good enough to say that Johnson shall have a loser's end. No, I won't say how much it will be, but it will repay him for training expenses, even so, even if it does not for the beating he will surely get."

PUTS UP MONEY

Jack Johnson Posts His $5000 Forfeit

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—Jack Johnson has covered Jim Jeffries' forfeit of $5000.

George Little, Johnson's representative, deposited the money with the sporting editor of a Chicago paper yesterday. The forfeit will be sent to New York as a matter of accommodation to Johnson, whose engagements will not permit him to reach New York until Thursday.

Oil Millionaire Married in London

THE LAURENTIAN

SIGHTED ICEBERGS OFF COAST OF NEWFOUNDLAND

BOSTON, Aug. 3.—The Laurentian, Capt. Inry, from Glasgow and Mobile, which arrived yesterday, reported passing a large iceberg and several smaller ones off the coast of Newfoundland Thursday. The liner encountered considerable fog.

While off Sable Island the passengers saw a sea combat between a whale on one side and a swordfish and thresher shark on the other. The liner passed within 100 feet of the bathing fish. The swordfish attacked the whale from below, and the stricken whale shot clear of the water several times while in sight of the ship. As the Laurentian drew away the whale's struggles appeared to be becoming weaker.

The Laurentian brought 97 cabin and 90 steerage passengers. On her manifests were Scotch whiskey, granite, pipes and general merchandise to the amount of 500 tons.
